ORDER

A meeting of the Branch Officer's of Examination (B.A/B.Sc/B.Com/P.G) Branches and Deputy Registrar, G & A I Branch was convened on 07-07-2003 to sort out the different issues coming up while distributing the grace marks and resolved to recommend as follows in the case of semester (Non-professional) Courses.

- a. As per the existing rules the grace marks eligible for the year are equally distributed among the two semesters. Usually, the various competitions/tournaments of a year are held at the time of even semesters and the students lose more of their classes in those semesters due to the participation in the events. In the above circumstances whether the grace marks eligible for a single year (i.e in two semesters) may be awarded to a single semester, if the candidate desired so.
- b. The grace marks may be calculated on the basis of the maximum aggregate marks of the respective semester, since the maximum marks of each semester in a single year is not one and the same for some subjects.
- c. The grace marks of the year may be distributed at the time of finalization of the results of even semesters.

It was further resolved to recommend to consider whether the total marks, consequent on the award of grace marks may be limited to 90% of each paper.

The Academic Council at its meeting held on 02-01-2004, vide item No. 1-10 considered the recommendations and resolved to approve the recommendations regarding the distribution of grace marks to outstanding sports stars.

Sanction has therefore been accorded to implement the above recommendations regarding the distribution of grace marks to outstanding sports stars.

Orders are issued accordingly.
