ORDER

Vide paper read first above , Choice based credit semester system and grading has been introduced for UG Programmes under School of Distance Education/ Private mode of the University with effect from 2011 admission onwards.

Vide paper read second above, Orders were issued to implement the additions to clause1 of the Regulations governing the Choice based credit semester system UG Programmes in School of Distance
Education/ Private mode as follows

The Syllabus of UG Programmes under Choice based credit semester system will be the same for the Regular, School of Distance Education and Private mode.

The number of courses and credits of School of Distance Education/ Private mode will be the same as that of Regular Programme except for BA Programmes.

For BA Programmes there will be one complimentary course in each semester with 4 credits. The complimentary course in 1st and 4th semesters and 2nd and 3rd semesters will be the same.

Vide paper read third the Syllabus of BA Programme in English under Choice based credit semester system in School of Distance Education/ Private mode was implemented with effect from 2011 admission.

Vide paper read fourth EX IV Section , Pareeksha Bhavan and Director School of Distance Education had highlighted a few discrepancies in the Syllabus of English(UG) Choice based credit semester system School of Distance Education with effect from 2011 admission.

Vide paper read fifth the Director, School of Distance Education sought clarifications again in the complementary course offered by School of Distance Education and remarked that the complementary course English for Communication is not offered for any of UG Programmes under School of Distance Education .

Taking into consideration the discrepancies noted by the Pareeksha Bhavan and Director School of Distance Education the Board of Studies Chairman English(UG) had forwarded a corrected version of the syllabus of BA English Choice based credit semester system School of Distance Education with effect from 2011 admission vide paper read as sixth above.

On verification of the syllabus it was found that in page 5 and 6 clause 12 examinations Internal assessment reads as 25% and end semester external examination reads as 75% which does not go along with the School of Distance Education Regulations.

The Board of Studies Chairman English UG was informed the same as per paper read seventh above.

Vide paper read eight the corrected version of the soft and hard copies of syllabus of BA English Choice based credit semester system School of Distance Education with effect from 2011 admission was forwarded by the Chairman Board of Studies in English(U.G)

Orders are therefore issued implementing the syllabus of BA English Choice based credit semester system in School of Distance Education/ Private mode with effect from 2011 admission in tune with Choice based credit semester system School of Distance Education regulations.

Orders are issued accordingly.

The U.O read third above stands modified to this extent.

The Syllabus is uploaded in the University website.

UNIVERSITY OF CALICUT
BOARD OF STUDIES IN ENGLISH, UG
RESTRUCTURED CURRICULUM
FOR COMMON COURSES 1-6, CORE COURSES, ELECTIVES & OPEN COURSES

PREAMBLE

1. PHILOSOPHY

The massive curriculum restructuring of the undergraduate programme undertaken by the University of Calicut envisages a thorough revamp of the existing one in concept, structure, content, spirit and methodology. The attempt is not to ‘sever the cord and shed the scales’ or to throw overboard the great legacy of the past, but to establish a stronger link with it in a more meaningful way. The three principles that govern a UG programme are: greater emphasis on methodology, interdisciplinarity and academic freedom. All these factors together should be able to contribute to the attainment of the larger goals viz. to develop communication skills, to foster essential sensibility to cherish and appreciate aesthetic values across borders, to inculcate the essential sensitivity to social concerns, to prepare for specialized study, and ultimately to develop a holistic personality in students.

The structure of an Undergraduate Programme comprises ten Common Courses, Core Courses (including two Methodology Courses, Informatics, an Elective and a Project), Complementary Courses and an Open Course.

2. COMMON COURSES (IN ENGLISH) 1-6:

The Common Courses include courses in English and other languages as well as courses specifically intended to create an interest in and to facilitate a serious discussion about vital societal and environmental issues and to promote the spirit of scientific enquiry.

Language Courses are intended to encourage reading of the various genres of literature in English and other languages. They are also intended to train the students in various kinds of reading using appropriate literary strategies. However, the teaching of language at this level is not limited to teaching of literature or teaching of language through literature alone. Knowledge content is also seen as equally important in the study of language. Since every language is a vast repository of knowledge, language teaching should also aim at developing a person’s ability to use it in a precise and effective manner. It can be seen that the restructured curriculum in its attempt to redefine the approach to language study has in fact enhanced the space for the study of language and literature in the common courses.

The broad objectives of the new common courses are: developing communicative competence and enhancing intellectual ability and aesthetic sensibility with a larger focus on inculcating human values. Care has been taken to see that the new curricula meet the linguistic, intellectual and cultural requirements of the students. These foundation courses have been widely felt and appreciated to be sufficient to develop the core competencies in a student to undergo an undergraduate programme of his/her choice and to help him/her pursue lifelong academic, cultural and economic activities.

On completion of these courses, a student should be able to:

- Master communication skills in English with fluency and accuracy.
- Approach an issue from various points of view, and develop the habit of questioning varied views critically and objectively.
- Perform academic writings and make academic presentations precisely, logically and effectively
- Teach himself how far literary language deviates from ordinary language
- Have a general understanding of India's constitution and its secular and plural traditions leading to an increased awareness of the value and spirit of comradeship, patriotism and national integration.
- Analyze environmental issues in the right perspective and recognize the need for adopting strategies for sustainable development.
- Have an overall understanding of some of the major issues in the contemporary world and respond empathetically as a learned citizen.
- Realize that science is a human endeavor based on facts and proven results, without taking recourse to any supernatural power or influence and discern the kind of socio-political environment which encourages scientific enquiry and that which stifles it.

4. CORE COURSES

Restructuring a system that has stood for a wide span of time and moulded generations past and present is no easy task. However, a duty that was initiated more than two years ago immediately after the present Board of Studies assumed charge, and carried forward with much enthusiasm, had a natural happy ending when the forty-odd teachers from various colleges and the members of the Board met at a five-day workshop at the University in January-February 2009. The newly restructured curriculum for BA English Language and Literature is a product of that workshop though the later readings of the papers have necessitated slight modifications in the outline and content of the original draft.

Framing of courses like the Methodology of Humanities and the Methodology of Literature is a totally new experience to UG curriculum designers in Kerala. The introduction of a stream-wise methodology course assumes significance as it is neither feasible nor desirable to teach everything even within a subject area. Moreover, subject boundaries have to be constantly crossed to explore the possibilities for the production of new knowledge. The methodology of the area of discipline helps a student explore further on his own in his chosen field of specialization. The study of Informatics renders the much needed modern day ICT tools. The four courses on READING envisage hands-on training in theoretical literary readings. Language and Criticism courses have been shaped to include more advanced areas in the field. The modern English literature course is designed to render a purely English flavour whereas interdisciplinary areas and other literatures would present a comparison and contrast , making learners aware of the fact that other flavours are also equally palatable and relishing. Special care has been taken to see that the teaching learning materials encourage intercultural dialogue wherever possible. The course in Writing for the Media would give the necessary cutting-edge tool for many.

A project equivalent to a full course is a novelty. Detailed guidelines for the project would be issued in due course.

3. a. CORE COURSES FOR BA DOUBLE MAIN PROGRAMMES WITH ENGLISH

The Double Main Programmes (with English as one of the mains) will have English as Core Course A and the other main as Core Course B. Such Programmes also have a compulsory component of ten Common Courses (38 credits), two Core components (A&B) consisting of nine Core Courses each, electives, and projects (78 credits) and an Open Course (4credits).

4. COMPLEMENTARY COURSES

Complementary courses (hitherto known as Subsidiary papers) are no longer seen as subsidiary or second rate. The study of these courses is intended to encourage interdisciplinarity and to expose the students to the possibilities in other disciplines. It also enriches the study of the core subjects.

In BA Programmes , there will be one complementary course in each semester with 4 credits. The complementary course in 1st and 4th semesters as well as in 2nd and 3rd semesters will be the same.

5. OPEN COURSES

Besides the Complementary Courses, a student will be required to choose in the Fifth Semester an Open Course from a discipline of his or her choice to further consolidate the flair for interdisciplinary approach he/she has already acquired at the beginning of the programme of study.

6. ELECTIVES

Electives, offered in the Sixth Semester, are the frontier areas of a specialized discipline. The courses such as World Classics in Translation and Regional Literatures in Translation should further widen the horizons of knowledge and lead students to fresh woods and pastures new.

7. APPROACH TO CURRICULUM DESIGN

Unlike in the past where the unintelligible topic descriptions on crumpled sheets of paper fondly called syllabus undergo various evolutions in the hands of students, teachers and the question paper setters who finally seal the fate of the syllabus, the curriculum materials contained herein are so designed that a predetermined educational experience as set out in the course objectives is delivered.

8. CURRICULAR TRANSACTIONS

RING OUT THE OLD RING IN THE NEW

The current practice of curricular transactions has to be given a farewell. Old practices such as dictation of notes are to be frowned upon. Carefully guided home assignments that are well-followed up, reinforced by well-monitored activities/projects individual/group, discussions, seminars, presentations and other modern techniques should make classes lively, imparting the joy of learning.

The specific requirements of below average students who have failed to learn their lessons in the lower classes and of students who learn a particular language for minimal social interactions are to be met using the space and time outside the common classrooms.

9. USE OF ICT

Various tools available in ICT are to be optimally utilized wherever possible. Effective use of Language Lab in skills training and spoken English drills yields marvelous results. Meticulously planned screening sessions of plays/films, replay of poetry recitals, recording of famous speeches etc are to be resorted to make the class rooms lively and effective.

10. COMMUNICATING THE SPIRIT OF THE CURRICULUM

This curriculum represents a major change from the trodden path, demanding positive readjustments from various stake holders: the university administration, teachers, students and parents. Effective motivating sessions and course-wise workshops should be organized by the university for the benefit of the teachers. It is recommended that the university print the syllabi and upload it on the university website.

11. CONTACT HOURS

As per the university regulations, the total number of contact hours for a course is 18 (weeks) x 4 hours/week = 72 hrs or 18 x 5 h/w = 90 hrs.

However, it should be possible for a student to set apart 2-3 hours of self study per day over 18 weeks which will total around 375 hours of self study/semester.

12. EXAMINATIONS

- 1) There shall be University Examination at the end of each semester. For practical convenience, 1st and 2nd semester examinations may be conducted at the end of 2nd semester only.
- 2) The theory examination of each course will be of three hours duration. It shall contain two parts (Internal and External). The internal examination will be conducted with 20 multiple choice questions and OMR answer sheet, at the beginning for 15 minutes. The rest 2 hours and 45 minutes is utilized for the external examination of that course.
- 3) The external question paper may contain short answer type, paragraph type and essay type questions.

- 4) Different types of questions shall possess different weightage to quantify their range. Weightage can vary from course to course depending on their comparative importance.

EVALUATION AND GRADING

1. The evaluation scheme for each course shall contain two parts.
 - i) Internal evaluation (20%)
 - ii) External evaluation (80%)

The weightage of internal and external evaluation is as follows.

Evaluation	Weightage
Internal	1 (20%)
External	4 (80%)

Both internal and external evaluation will be done using Direct Grading system.

13.DIRECT GRADING SYSTEM

Direct Grading System based on a 5 point scale is used to evaluate the performance (External and Internal) of students.

Letter Grade	Performance	Grade Point	Grade Range
A	Excellent	4	3.50 to 4.00
B	Very Good	3	2.50 to 3.49
C	Good	2	1.50 to 2.49
D	Average	1	0.50 to 1.49
E	Poor	0	0.00 to 0.49

COURSE OUTLINE

MODULE I

Traits of Literature: What forms literature? How is literature different from other discourses? - Canon Formation: Who determines taste? How are certain works and authors marginalized? – English literatures: British, American, African, Indian, Canadian, Australian etc.

MODULE II

Textual approaches: New criticism, Formalism, Close Reading, Deconstruction, Reader response – Psychoanalytic: Freud, Lacan and Zizek
(not the heavy jargon but reading possibilities) – Archetypal: Unconscious and universal patterns of repetition

MODULE III

Gender: Marginalized genders – Ethnic: Marginalization of aboriginals, how their culture is demolished and specimens? – Subaltern: A unique Indian phenomenon, Dalit literature, marginalization

MODULE IV

Post colonial: How texts are reread? Quest for expression, assertion of nationalism with special reference to India and Arica – Cultural studies: Cultural Materialism, New Historicism, Marxism, Postmodernism – Eco-critical: Awareness of nature and environment, eco-feminism

Approach

The approach has to be open and flexible in sensibility, avoiding judicious judgments. Instead of offering rigid definitions and descriptions, the teacher is to stimulate thinking process and help students form positions through familiar examples. A few poems (or stories) are to be selected and read from different theoretical frames so that the student can grasp how one contrasts with the other.

Classes may be devoted to simple explication of the methodologies followed by practical illustrations of the application of the methodologies on short works and finally, student assignments on these lines.

- 4) John Keats : Grecian Urn
- 5) Robert Browning : The Laboratory

- 6) Thomas Gray : Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard
- 7) D.H.Lawrence : Mosquito

(Note: The first set of ‘Four Poems,’ taken as a single unit, is meant to serve as a formal initiation into the world of poetry. Students should be able to read, understand and appreciate them on their own, without much help from the teacher. A post reading discussion should be centred on aspects such as genre, poet, theme, similarity, contrasts, style, language, metre, rhyme etc. Teaching techniques such as ‘elicitation’ could be mainly resorted to (by way of asking short questions, giving hints etc.). Written assignments are to be given. Loud reading sessions of the poems would be helpful in many ways.)

GUIDELINES FOR THE PROJECT WORK

INTRODUCTION

The Scheme and Syllabus of BA Programme in English CCSS stipulates that the students should do a final Project. The UG Board of Studies held on 29/07/2011 discussed and resolved to propose specific guidelines for the preparation and submission of the said Project. The following are the guidelines for conducting, reporting and submitting the Project in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Arts in English of the University of Calicut.

The entire course of Project Work is spread in the last two Semesters namely V and VI Semesters of the BA degree Programme. In the V Semester, the Course of Project work, with two hours per week allotted is a non-credit Course. However, in the VI Semester, the Course of Project Work is a logical and practical continuation of the Course of Project work done in the V Semester. In the VI Semester, the Course of Project work carries 4 credits. The number of hours allotted per week in the VI Semester also is 2 hours as in the case of the V Semester.

THE GUIDELINES TO BE FOLLOWED

The guidelines to be followed in the preparation, conducting, reporting, submission and evaluation of the Project work are as follows:-

1. The topics shall strictly adhere to the authors or socio-cultural backgrounds/influences of English Literature.
2. The candidates can take up a topic either from the prescribed syllabus or from outside the prescribed syllabus. The projects on the topics outside the syllabus will attract grace marks.
3. It is recommended that the project should be carried out on individual basis. In special cases Group presentation of projects can be allowed.
4. V Semester shall be devoted to the study of methodology of research and project work. By the end of the V Semester, a Synopsis of Project work should be finalised with the help of the guide.
5. The Synopsis of the Project, which is finalized by the end of V Semester, should be submitted to the Department for approval. It shall consist of the following:
 - Title of the Project
 - Objectives
 - Review of Literature
 - Methodology including the reading list.

It is strongly recommended that, the Department need not wait till the end of the Semester for the finalization of the topic for Project Work. The students shall be encouraged to start the project work as early as possible in the V Semester itself. This will ensure enough buffer time in case of unforeseen circumstances.

6. A Department Level Project Committee under the Chairmanship of Head of Department, in its due course of meetings, shall approve the topics for Project work. The Department Level Project Committee may or may not conduct a zero-credit-zero-mark general viva to ascertain the competency of the candidates for conducting the project work. The Department Level Project Committee shall give necessary guidelines, which should be taken note by the students as well as the guide.

7. The approved topics, along with the name of students and the name of the guide/supervisor should be displayed in a Notice Board under the Seal and Signature of the Head of the Department.
8. Considering the number of students available in a batch and the number of Faculty members available in a department, it is suggested that the students shall be grouped into 5 to 10 groups consisting of 3 to 5 students. Each faculty member shall thus give guidance to one or two such groups.
9. The VI Semester is fully devoted for
 - Library Work and Data Collection
 - Data Analysis
 - Project Writing
 - Report Presentation and Submission
10. The candidates shall devote themselves to the realization of the project, making use of the holidays. Hours allotted for Project work in the V and VI Semesters should be devoted for attending lecture classes on Project work and for obtaining guidance from the Supervisor.
11. Each candidate shall submit the Report of the Project work, separately under his/her name. However, in the case of group submission, the names of other members of the group shall be mentioned in the Certificate signed by the Supervisor/Guide and Head of Department.
12. Normally a Report should consist of the following:-
 - 25 to 30 A-4 size typed or printed pages
 - Font: Times New Roman
 - Letter size: 12 for running matter
 - Letter Size: 16 for Headings
 - Line Spacing: 1.5
 - Page Numbers: aligned to the top-center
 - Margins of 1.25 inches on all sides.
 - References if any may be given as Footnotes. However, this matter is left for the discretion of the student and Supervisor.
 - Spiral binding.

- Minor desirable variations can be adopted by the DLPC (Debat. Level Project Committee) of a College.
- Structure of the Project Report is as follows:- Page i)

13. It is of utmost importance that the student should refrain from plagiarism.

The Supervisor shall take utmost care in this regard.

14. Evaluation of the Project: The Project Report shall be subjected to both internal and external evaluation. The Internal Evaluation shall be done at the Department level. As in the case of the Core Courses, the Internal Evaluation of the project carries 25% Weightage. This has to be awarded to the candidates on the basis of his/her performance in the project presentation followed by an Internal Viva-Voce conducted by a three member Committee comprising of the Head of Department, Supervisor, and a senior Faculty member. The External Evaluation of the Project is based on the written material.

The external evaluation is done by a Board of Examiners consisting of a minimum of 3 members selected from a Panel of Examiners constituted from among the faculty members of English. The Board of Examination shall consist of at least one faculty member from the Department, the students of which are examined. A copy of the Project report shall be collected and sent from the Colleges (Examination Centers) to the University and the External Evaluation shall be arranged as per University decision.

Declaration of the Result: The student should get a minimum of C Grade for a pass.

In an instance of inability of obtaining a minimum grade of C, the Project may be redone and the report may be resubmitted.
